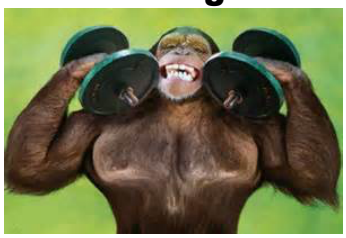
Do you know your own strength?!?



We ALL have God-given strengths and talents!!!

Figuring out how God has gifted and empowered each of us to be the hands and feet and face of Christ in the world is one of our most important tasks as disciples!

Christ the King uses the StrengthsFinder (SF) assessment to help parishioners identify and live out of their greatest talents and strengths. If you are interested in learning more about SF or taking the assessment, please contact Kirsten at khangas@ctkmsla.org

StrengthsFinder identifies 34 different talent themes that help people understand themselves and others more fully. Each week we will explore one of the themes.

COMMAND - People especially talented in the Command theme have presence. They can take control of a situation and make decisions.

The Genius and Beauty of COMMAND:

The genius of your Command talent begins with the fact that you can and will impact others, and you will do so with great power. Your genius strength of Command gives you great courage to boldly enter into a crisis and dangerous situations. It is as if you have even more clarity of thought about what needs to be done when there is an emergency. You have the courage to step in and take charge when people are threatened and when there are threatening circumstance. In emergencies, you have clarity, a willingness to voice your ideas and people appreciate your willingness to step up and confront dangers. In these situations you will impact all around you. Similarly, you are willing to see the way through conflicts and misunderstandings by bringing to light what is often hidden. While some get nervous because you can be so powerful, everyone is grateful when your strength of command addresses emergencies, crises, conflicts, and danger.

Some CTK parishioners who are high in COMMAND:

Jennifer Blood

Tracy Campbell

Richard Bishop

COMMAND is the LEAST common of all 34 talents!

Prayer for those high in COMMAND: May you continue to take the reins and challenge others to be clear-eyed and honest in their response to God.
