Deep
Gratitude

A note from Bridgette:

I have learned much during my time at Christ the King and give thanks to God for the many opportunities I have had to grow. Thank you for challenging me and for making me laugh. Catholic Campus Ministry would not be equipped to serve the University of Montana without the support of the parish, the diocese, or Catholic Extension. Thank you for your prayers and generous hearts. May our Blessed Lord continue to watch over you, strengthen you, and guide you towards Truth. Be ready always to give reason for that hope which is in you (1 Peter 3:15). Godspeed and I will see you in the Eucharist.

We praise and thank you, God of the journey, For Father Gasper and Bridgette who will be leaving us. We entrust them to your loving care, knowing that you are always the Faithful Traveler and Companion on our way. Shelter Fr. Gasper and Bridgette and protect them from all harm and all useless anxiety. May their future be a source of many enriching and transforming moments. May the love that is in our hearts be a bond that unites us forever, wherever we may be. Amen
