is there
more to life
than this?

Winter Session
Begins Feb. 12

Come and See • Monday February 12

5:30 pm in the Lower Center

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the basics of the Christian faith. Each week we look at a different question that anyone can have about faith. It's an open, informal and honest space to explore and discuss life's big questions together.

For more information, and to register, head to ctkmsla.org/alpha

What you need to know about the RCIA

"Catholics are often nervous when someone tells them they have a duty to evangelize. However, ...the first way we evangelize is by the way we appear. Pope Francis says we should appear as people who:

- share joy
- point to the horizon
- and draw others to the banquet.

What draws people to us is how we look on the road and who we are becoming on the way."

How do you look and who are you becoming on the way? Whom might God be calling you to evangelize – to invite into this journey? How will you respond?

For more information on RCIA or evangelization, contact Patti Cassidy in the parish office at extension 228 or pcassidy@ctkmsla.org.
