Behold the Lord will come . . . John [the Baptist] knows that God is preparing something very great, something for which he is to be the instrument; and he himself points in the direction that the Holy Spirit shows him. We know much more now about what it was that God had in mind for humanity. We know Christ and His Church, we have the sacraments. The doctrine of salvation has been perfectly marked out for us . . . We know that the world needs Christ to reign, we know that the happiness and salvation of all mankind depend on Him. We have Christ Himself; the same Christ whom John the Baptist knew and announced. We are witnesses and precursors. We have to bear witness and at the same time we have to show others the way. Our responsibility is great, because to be Christ's witnesses implies first and foremost that we should try to live our lives according to his doctrine, that we should struggle to make our actions remind others of Jesus and His most loveable personality.

Our Annual Giving Tree

Thank you for Participating
We are serving more families then ever this year. If there are still tags on the tree please consider helping.

 The gifts need to be returned to CtK by Wed., Dec. 7th. It is best if you can wrap them up in a gift bag.

 If you have any extra Christmas Gift Bags and/or tissue paper, please consider donating them.

 If you want to help, but don't want to shop, cash and/or gift cards are welcome.

Advent Reflections will be held every Sunday of Advent
Following the 10AM Mass during coffee and donuts

Many of us crave a different kind of experience during Advent, free from the noise and chaos that has become the norm. The focus will be on the Gospel readings for each of the Sundays. Advent is meant to be a time of waiting for the incarnation of Jesus while being filled with the spiritual gifts of Hope, Peace, Love, and Joy. Come, join us as we immerse deeply into the gospel messages of this time of expectation and experience the personal message intended for each and every one of us.
