Welcome to our new Campus and Young Adult Minister, Genevieve G'Sell

Hi there! My name is Genevieve G'Sell and I am your new campus and young adult minister! I am a Midwest gal at heart, hailing from St. Louis, Missouri, home of the St. Louis Cardinals. Go Cards! I am the fifth of seven kids in my family and grew up on PBJ's and PBS. My passions include Catholicism (you guessed it!), hiking, painting, traveling, and singing. I am a Registered Nurse and worked in St. Louis on a Medical Pulmonary floor for about a year. Montana was calling and I took a nursing job at St. Pat's on their Oncology floor for six months. This past year, Jesus has put this humongous desire on my heart to work for the Church which brings me here at Christ the King! Please introduce yourself as I'd love to get to know you and hear your story! I can't wait to meet you!

Volunteer Spotlight

Many thanks to Jim Bell. He does so much behind the scenes volunteer work for CtK. He writes our beautiful Prayers of the Faithful each week. He organizes the readings. He washes all the mass linens and he is our go to editor. He has also been working on a detailed parish history for many years. Jim is always good for a laugh. He is a blessing to the Pastoral Team and to all of the parishioners at CtK. Thank you, Jim, for being so generous with your time and talent.

Volunteer Spotlight

We can count on him! Kevin Fredenberg has been a consistent offertory counter for CtK. He served on the Finance Council for years. He is always happy to help with repairs and painting that needs to be completed around the parish. Thank you, Kevin, for your reliability!
