FAMILY PROMISE of Missoula brings the faith community together to help families regain their housing, their independence, and their dignity. Family Promise is a partnership of interfaith congregations within our Missoula community helping families who are facing homelessness. Participation in this network offers an opportunity for volunteers of all faiths to reduce homelessness and transform lives.

The primary support comes from Host Congregations which offer lodging and meals within their own church facilities. With this support, “home” is provided for families in need so they can move to stability and self-reliance in their efforts on their destination home. Christ the King Parish is one of the “Host Congregations”.

HERE'S HOW FAMILY PROMISE WORKS:

- Homeless families with children are usually referred by social service agencies and programs.
- From there, an initial phone interview is done, followed by a formal intake at the Family Promise office.
- Criminal background checks on all adult members of the family.
 - People who have a history of criminal violence, sexual offenses, or those who have perpetual encounters with law enforcement cannot enter the program.
- 90-day limit of stay for guest families.
- Each Sunday, guest families rotate to a different host congregation, where facilities are set up for each family to have its own room for that week.
- During the week, families leave the host congregation by 7 am.
- At 5 pm, guest families return to the host church for the evening.

Christ the King will be hosting Family Promise families the week of August 13-19. Please consider sharing your time and/or talents by volunteering to help. Becky Bishop will be in the back of the Church after each Mass today to answer any questions or sign you up to volunteer. Thank you.

Building community, strengthening lives.
