Cool Saints:

Do you have a bad habit of sleeping through your alarm? Or maybe you have a special affinity for the snooze button? Drop a request for prayers to Sant Vitus, who is the patron saint of dancers and comedians, but also protects against oversleeping. While much of his story is argued to be more legend than fact, he is still celebrated as a martyr, especially in Germany and the surrounding countries. His feast day is June 15.

Catholic Campus Ministry Vocations Retreat

February 10-11 - Radisson
Hotel in Helena, MT

College students from across the diocese are invited to gather in Helena to learn about and explore a variety of vocations, begin to discern God's specific vocation, and learn from amazing examples, with speakers coming from a variety of sacramental vocations: married couples, men's and women's religious, and those living the single life. The retreat will also feature prayer activities, small group discussion, and individual reflections.

It is our goal to keep this overnight retreat FREE to the individual student, but space is limited, so register now by contacting Kevin Molm at kmolm@ctkmsla.org
