Catholic Trivia:

What were the names of the three magi (wise men) who came from the east to see the newly born Jesus?

Answer: Melchior, Caspar, and Balthazar.

Did You know:

In Greek and Eastern Orthodox Epiphany traditions, a priest will bless a body of water (the sea, a river, etc.) by throwing a cross into it. Worshippers then dive in and attempt to retrieve the cross, and in some communities, like Bulgaria, it is a competition to see who can get it first.

This tradition commemorates the baptism of Jesus by John the Baptist.
