TAKE OUT FOR GUATEMALA

The Clinica Maxeña is a vital part of the community in Santo Thomas La Union in Guatemala. Founded more than 50 years ago by the Diocese of Helena, it provides health care to some of the poorest of the poor in the town. The clinic also has begun numerous health initiatives including assistance and education for nursing mothers, a diabetic club, and preventative health initiatives - all hosted at the clinic. The meeting area and kitchen that facilitate this work is more than 45 years old and in need of a new roof due to water damage. The estimated cost is $10,000 and needs to begin soon before the rainy season hits the area. If you haven't already, please consider helping with a donation to our Take Out for Guatemala initiative. You can give with a take out box, or you can make a direct contribution by heading to our website. Your support really does change lives!

THANK YOU!
