One Book, One Parish

This year, we will be reading Living the Mass by Fr. Dominic Grassi & Joe Paprocki together. Copies are available in the back of the church and in the parish office.

A small group will meet to discuss the book every Sunday at 10:15 am, but discussion questions are also available for anyone who wants to start their own group.

G.I.F.T. Night Topic This Week:

A Night On Prayer

Join the CCM Peer Ministers as they walk through several great ways to pray in this Lenten season.

Mass 5:15 • Dinner 5:50 • Presentation 6:45

Easter Triduum

The Lent retreat is now the

Easter Triduum Retreat
and has moved to April 13-15.

This retreat consists of three meetings, one after each of the Triduum liturgies. Together we will dive deeper into the meaning of each day. More information will be available soon.

Looking for something to give up for Lent?
Why not give up complaining?

Join the 'Complaint Free World' campaign by wearing a purple bracelet, and every time you catch yourself complaining, switch it to your other wrist. Scientists say it takes 21 days to form a new habit, and we have 40!

You can pick up a bracelet in the back of the church or in the parish office.

Looking for a great way to give alms?
Help us support 'Take Out for Guatemala'

By picking up a take out box in the back of the church, you're helping to support the people and programs at the Guatemala mission. You can hold on to these boxes and fill them with cash or change throughout Lent. We ask that you return them by Holy Thursday on April 13th. This is a great way to support a cause that is very near and dear to our Parish and to our Diocese.
